

ABOUT US

The Lehigh Consulting Group serves to provide real world business skills while placing a strong focus on leadership and analytics. The purpose of our group is to help the Lehigh University undergraduate community gain necessary skills to achieve a position in consulting upon graduation. LCG facilitates networking between Lehigh Students and consulting professionals, holds business case competitions, and provides information sessions and speaker series that are made available to the entire school's population. LCG also contains the Analyst Program in which only a select group of individuals who have demonstrated passion and dedication towards a career in consulting are invited to apply. Analysts gain real, hands-on consulting experience by working on projects provided by businesses in the local community.

I really wanted to expand the network of companies that come to Lehigh. There are a lot of other things out there, and we wanted to explore the definition of what consulting is.

Josh Blatt | 2016-17 Lehigh Consulting Group President

CONSULTING SUMMIT

- The Lehigh Consulting Summit is an annual conference aimed to foster networking between Lehigh students, alumni, and professionals in order to inspire and empower young leaders.
- It is also an interactive day of growth and development, where attendees engage in both personal and professional development through participation in a networking day consisting of panel discussions and career hours with company professionals.
- Inaugurated in the Fall of 2017, the LCG Consulting Summit began as a way to expand LCG's outreach among those at Lehigh University. Some of the ideas that emerged from this goal was to host a large consulting-focused networking event to reach out to more students outside of the College of Business and Economics, as well as to expose them to opportunities in consulting that they can pursue.

2018 CONSULTING SUMMIT HIGHLIGHTS

- Had an attendance of over 150 students, professors, alumni, and professionals
- The Summit hosted company information sessions for both EY and PwC as well as interactive panels that encompassed experiences from consulting across multiple industries, to the many transition opportunities available in consulting
- Students acquired internship and job offers from the firms that attended because the companies were able to network with hardworking and talented students during the height of recruiting season
- Major past sponsors include: PwC, EY, KPMG, Deloitte, West Monroe Partners, Aon, and Factory LLC
- The keynote speaker was Richard Thompson, who was founder and CEO of multiple successful CPG companies, and founder and managing director of the operations and scale-up company, Factory LLC
- The event finished off with a lunch served alongside an open and interactive networking hour where attendees could touch base with old contacts and meet new ones
